Tried using video in your online club tournaments?

Dear Club Manager,

Imagine bringing your face-to-face games online and earning extra revenue with zero risk. With BBO, you can also play with video if you'd like to create a more social game. Offer more playing options to your members and recruit new members at the same time.

Why should my club use BBO?

Increased Visibility

Reach a global audience of bridge enthusiasts and attract new members.

Flexibility

Organize tournaments at convenient times for your members, regardless of geographical location.

Convenience

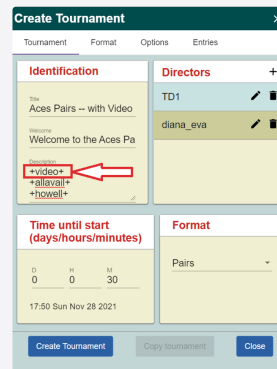

Allow your members to enjoy tournament play and more bridge from the comfort of home.

Maximize the benefits of hosting games on BBO

By hosting premium games on BBO, you'll have:

- BBO Points: Offer BBO points, providing a fresh incentive beyond peer recognition.
- Revenue Split: Enjoy a generous 70-30 revenue share in favor of your club.
- Marketing Support: Benefit from our platform's wide reach to communicate your games.
- Additional Choices: Expand your club's offerings without losing current benefits.
- Enhanced Control: Directly manage game structure, pricing, and rewards.
- Flexibility: Provide diverse game options without disruption.
- Zero Risk: Explore new revenue streams with no risk to your club's operations.

Activating Video in Tournaments is Easy

When creating your tournament, simply include "+video+" in the tournament description. The video chat box will automatically appear for players accessing BBO via the website when the tournament starts, here's how to join the video.

About Video Chat

One more really important thing - we also offer communication support to help spread the word for your online events. Stay tuned for more details in our next email. Feel free to contact Jerome for more information!
